MAY 1972

A. WRITERS

CZECHOSLOVAKIA

Vladimir Skutina

Author and television commentator. Sentenced in February 1971 in Prague to 2 years' imprisonment for "agitation", on a charge that he had written and planned to distribute two documents ~~al~~andering the state. In June 1971 he was brought to trial again, charged with having insulted the First Secretary of the Czech Communist Party. His sentence was 4 years' imprisonment, replacing the earlier 2 year sentence. He is reported to be very ill with cancer of the pancreas.

GREECE

Stylianos Perrakis

Publisher and poet from Crete; aged 63. Sentenced to 15 months in November 1971 for publishing a collection of poetry containing "shameful and insulting" references to Greek officers. The book was published last May, called Poetry for National and Social Amusements. He has a history of nervous breakdown resulting from hardship during student years and has had a nervous breakdown while under arrest.

INDONESIA

Pramoedya Ananta Toer

Author of ten novels, several volumes of short stories, a number of critical essays and one highly controversial book of popular history, The Chinese Question in Indonesia. Arrested in October 1965, was a supporter of LEKRA, the left-wing cultural organisation. Now one of 10,000 prisoners moved to indefinite detention on the island of Buru, in the Moluccas.

Bujung Saleh

Writer and literary critic, he is an authority on Multatuli (the pen name of E.D. Dekker), the author of the XIX century novel Max Havelaar. From 1962 to 1964 Saleh was Profeseor of Indonesian language and literature at Moscow University. He was a member of Baperki, the predominantly Chinese organisation, whose leaders were arrested in September 1965, and which was banned in 1966. Saleh was arrested early in 1967.

T.W. Kanil

Linguist and philologist on the faculty of Djakarta University. Aged 44: arrested in 30 October 1965, presumably because of his membership of HSI

(Indonesian Scholars' Association), a left-wing academic organisation. He is held in Salemba Prison, Djakarta.

Sitor Situmorang

Poet and writer; aged 49; formerly chairman of the National Cultural Foundation, an Indonesian Nationalist Party organisation. Situmorang comes from a Christian background and is not a communist. He was arrested early in 1967, apparently for having been in possession of writings which criticised the Suharto government.

Rivan Apin
