ONE MORE SOLDIER RELEASED

Another of the soldiers held without charge in Guinea has been released. The 10 others are still detained incommunicado and are at risk of torture or other ill-treatment.

Colonel Fodé Bacar Sylla was released without charge on 19 September, after more than seven months in custody. He has returned to his family in the capital, Conakry. There are concerns about his treatment during his detention on the Island of Kassa.

- Expressing concern that the men are held incommunicado in an unlawful place of detention, where others are known to have been tortured;
