Father Jean Juste's name was among a list of individuals (shown above) and organizations broadcast on 15 December 1991 by a clandestine Haitian radio station. In the broadcast, the speaker called on Tonton Macoutes for the assassination of all the people mentioned in the list. [Please note that the broadcast was made in the evening of Sunday 15 December not Sunday 22 December as was previously stated in the original urgent action.]

Several days later, on 18 December, the residence of Father Jean-Juste was reportedly forced into by the Haitian military. Father Jean-Juste was apparently not at home at the moment of the attack, but other residents of the home were reportedly beaten and household furniture and personal belongings were damaged.

Amnesty International remains seriously concerned for the safety of Father Jean-Juste, and of the others named in the list. [Please note that André Jude's name accidentally appeared twice in the list produced on the original urgent action.]

FURTHER RECOMMENDED ACTION: Telegrams/telexes/faxes/express and airmail letters:

- expressing concern for the safety of Father Jean-Juste;
- asking for his safety and the safety of all those named in the list to be guaranteed;
- asking that the reported incident in which the house of Father Jean-Juste was forced into by the Haitian military and the residents of the home were beaten be investigated and that those found responsible be brought to justice.
