PERUJulio Cesar Mendivil Trelles

Julio Cesar Mendivil Trelles was released on the evening of 25 August 1999.

"It was an uncertain time, but thank God, I received support from my family and from international organisations," he told the press during an emotional reunion with his mother, son and family. He added, "It is my desire and hope that the judges will work with the same speed they worked on my case for the release of the other innocent prisoners".

Thank you very much to everybody working on this case for helping to make this possible. No further action is required.
