Amnesty International has just received confirmation that Haryanto Taslam reappeared in mid-April 1998 (precise date unknown). There are currently no details about his whereabouts since 9 March, but it is strongly believed that he was being held in custody during this period.

N.A. Chairal and Hamdani remain in police custody, but have now been permitted to legal council.

Thank you to all who sent appeals on this case. No further action is required.
