Amnesty International believes that the sentences imposed on the 10 individuals named above have been upheld by the Supreme Court in Malaysia and that they may be executed at any time. While no official date has been set, the prisoners constantly fear execution.

FURTHER RECOMMENDED ACTION: Please send telegrams/telexes/faxes and airmail letters either in English or in your own language:

- expressing concern that the death sentences imposed have been upheld by the Supreme Court;
- expressing grave concern that the prisoners may have been disadvantaged by language difficulties during their trials;
- stating Amnesty International's unconditional opposition to the death penalty;
- urging that all death sentences be commuted and that no further death sentences be imposed.
