According to reports in the Turkish press, 12 students of Dicle University in Diyarbak_r have been taken to court, charged with membership of an illegal organization and committed to prison to await trial. All other detained students have been released.

Zehra Ayd_n, the trainee teacher who had to be transferred from police custody to hospital, is among those released. She has now returned home.

No further information is available at this stage and no further action by the UA Network is required. Many thanks to all who sent appeals.
