DAUGHTER OF COLUMBIAN DEFENDER THREATENED

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Cendy Torres has received several death threats in recent years, supposedly in reprisal for her mother's work as a human rights defender. Ingrid Vergara, of the Sucre branch of the National Movement of Victims of State Crimes (Movimiento Nacional de Víctimas de Crímenes de Estado, MOVICE), has been campaigning against impunity in cases of human rights violations committed by paramilitary groups, who have often operated with the support of the armed forces and local politicians, and on the issue of return of lands stolen during the course of paramilitary operations.

On 30 March 2011 a caller told Cendy Torres Vergara that she would end up dead on the road.

On 1 December 2010, armed men entered Ingrid Vergara's home, physically and verbally attacked Cendy Torres Vergara, and threatened to kill her. The men left the home after forcefully removing the hard drive of a computer containing work Ingrid Vergara had been carrying out related to land issues, specifically documentation for a public meeting scheduled for two days later.

On 20 November 2010, Ingrid Vergara received a call on her mobile phone. The caller told her "don't get into land issues" and then hung up after a silence.

On 12 October 2010, when Ingrid Vergara was in Majagual Square, in Sincelejo, one of the bodyguards, provided to her by the Ministry of Interior's protection programme, noticed three suspicious men near Ingrid Vergara, talking about the absence of her second bodyguard. When two more men approached Ingrid Vergara on a motorcycle, the bodyguard urged her to quickly leave the square. She thinks that they may have been planning to kill her.

On 2 April 2008, unknown men threatened to kill Cendy Torres Vergara, supposedly in reprisal for her mother's work as a human rights defender. On 26 October 2009, Cendy Torres Vergara received a death threat addressed to Ingrid Vergara.

MOVICE is a broad coalition of civil society organizations campaigning for truth, justice and reparation for the victims of Colombia's long-running internal armed conflict. Ingrid Vergara and her colleagues in MOVICE have documented and exposed many cases of killings and enforced disappearance carried out by the security forces and paramilitary groups in Sucre department.

On 23 March 2011 Eder Verbel Rocha, a member of MOVICE in Sucre Department killed. (see UA 94/11 AMR 23/007/2011 Colombia).

On 18 May 2010 Rogelio Martínez, one of the leaders of MOVICE in Sucre Department was shot dead. He had been campaigning for the right to truth, justice and reparation for communities forcibly displaced communities during the course of attacks carried out by army-backed paramilitaries in previous years.
