Serbia: Amnesty International supports Belgrade Pride 2010

Amnesty International members from across Europe are coming to Belgrade to support activists from Serbian lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) organizations in their march against discrimination on 10 October.

“We are here to add our voices to the call for diversity and tolerance, equality before the law for all, no discrimination on sexual orientation and gender identity grounds,” said David Diaz-Jogeix, Europe and Central Asia Deputy Programme Director.

Belgrade Pride 2010, the first in nearly 10 years, is organized by Gay Straight Alliance and Queeria - center for the promotion of culture of non-violence and equality, with the support and assistance of the Group for Support of Gay Men from Novi Sad and other LGBT activists.

The Pride march is scheduled to start at 10:00 local time on 10 October at Manjež Park in central Belgrade.
