MALDIVES Ibrahim Luthfee] businessman
 Ahammaadhee (m)
 Fathimath Nisreen (f)

Released: Ismail Zaki (m)] businessman
 Naushad Waheed (m)] artist/cartoonist

Ismail Zaki, who was arrested along with his brother, Mohamed Zaki in Male', on 31 January was reportedly released on 23 February following his transfer to house arrest on 14 February. He is unable to leave the country as his passport was been retained by the authorities. Naushad Waheed is also reported to have been released, though the charges against him are not known.

Mohamed Zaki is reportedly still being held at Dhoonidhoo detention centre on an island near Male'. The Government of Maldives has not responded to appeals asking about the reasons for his arrest.

Ibrahim Luthfee, Mohamed Zaki, a third man known as Ahammaadhee, and Fathimath Nisreen, a young woman who used to work for Ibrahim Luthfee, were reportedly brought to court in Male' on 29 May. They were reportedly not allowed the services of a lawyer and were charged with "... conspiring to cause hatred in the people's mind towards the government". The latter two may or may not be the two students referred to in the original urgent action.

The four detainees may have been arrested because of their alleged involvement in the circulation of an Internet bulletin, called Sandhaanu. This was sent by email and reportedly contained articles that were critical of the government.
