Civilian population of La Pedregosa and Santa Catalina, municipality of Cajibío

A large contingent of paramilitaries, who are marching on the municipal capital of Cajibío in the department of Cauca, have entered a local community and abducted two people. Amnesty International is concerned for their safety, and for the safety of the civilian population in the area.

On 16 March approximately 200 paramilitaries, who had reportedly entered the municipality of Cajibío on 13 March, came to the community of Santa Catalina. They abducted Matías Zambrano and José Justo Zambrano. The two men have not been seen since. The paramilitaries are now advancing towards the community of La Pedregosa, which is on the way to Cajibío.

Over the past week, Colombian non-governmental human rights organizations have repeatedly alerted the commander of a battalion with the III Brigade of the Colombian army, the Batallón José Hilario, which is stationed in the area, that gunmen were advancing towards Cajibío. However, the army has taken no action to prevent the paramilitaries from advancing, and they have been able to march unhindered through the area.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Members of the Colombian army and security forces and their paramilitary allies commit serious human rights violations with virtual impunity. In the last five years, several thousand civilians have been killed by paramilitary groups. By the 19 January 2001, the United Nations Human Rights Office in Colombia had been informed that 26 massacres had been committed in 11 departments, and that more than 170 people had been killed, most of them by paramilitary groups.

In 1989 the Colombian government suspended the constitutional legal base for the formation of paramilitary organizations, and issued directives to the armed forces to combat and disband such groups. However, they continue to operate with the support of the security forces in many areas of the country.

RECOMMENDED ACTION: Please send telegrams/telexes/faxes/express/airmail letters in Spanish or your own language:

- expressing concern for the safety of José Justo Zambrano and Matías Zambrano, who have not been seen since they were abducted by paramilitaries;
- urging the authorities to take all appropriate measures to secure their safety;
- calling for a full and impartial investigation into their abduction, with the results made public and those responsible brought to justice;
- expressing concern for the safety of civilians in the municipality of Cajibío, including the inhabitants of La Pedregosa and Santa Catalina, following reports that paramilitaries are advancing on the municipal capital, Cajibío;
- urging the authorities to take appropriate measures to protect the civilian population, while reminding them that if they fail to do so, it will seem that the paramilitaries are operating with the complicity of the security forces;
- calling for a full and impartial investigation into links between the security forces and paramilitary groups operating in Cauca Department, urging that the results are made public and those found responsible for supporting and participating in such groups are brought to justice;

- urging the authorities to take immediate action to dismantle paramilitary groups, in line with stated government commitments and United Nations recommendations.
