Further information on UA 172/96 (AMR 41/35/96, 8 July 1996) - Fear for safety

MEXICO Fabiola Cancino de los Santos (f), aged 30, journalist

Although Amnesty International remains concerned that those responsible for the raid on the house of Fabiola Cancino de los Santos on 5 July 1996 have not been brought to justice, there have been no more attacks or threats against the journalist, and for the present no further action by the Urgent Action Network is requested.

The relevant human rights organizations in Mexico have asked for their thanks to be passed on to those who appealed on behalf of Fabiola Cancino de los Santos, and have reiterated their belief in the importance of international Urgent Action appeals in such cases.
