Further information on UA 218/94 (AMR 27/01/94, 7 June 1994) - "Disappearance"

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC:Narciso GONZÁLEZ, university lecturer, journalist and political activist

Narciso González's wife is reported to have been told by a military officer, who requested anonymity, that Narciso González was seen at the Palacio de la Policía Nacional, National Police Palace, in Santo Domingo, the capital, on 27 May 1994, a day after he "disappeared". According to these reports she was also informed that her husband was badly injured at the National Police Palace and then transferred to a military hospital.

The authorities have still neither acknowledged Narciso González's detention nor confirmed where he is being held. He remains "disappeared".

FURTHER RECOMMENDED ACTION: Please send telegrams/faxes/express and airmail letters in Spanish or your own language:

- expressing concern that Narciso González's whereabouts remain unknown;
- urging the authorities to immediately and thoroughly investigate his "disappearance" and that the results be made public;
- urging that, if in custody, he be humanely treated and given access to an independent lawyer, his relatives and medical care as necessary;
- asking that if in custody his whereabouts be disclosed and that he be either brought before a judge and charged with a recognizable criminal offence or be released immediately.
