YUGOSLAVIA:Drago Eterovic and others

Amnesty International has recently learned that Drago Eterovic was released from detention in a camp near Zrenjanin, Vojvodina province in Northern Serbia in December 1991, and has returned to his home in Backa Palanka. Some of those arrested with him, including a local priest, Father Lazar Krmpotic, have reportedly also been released, but others are believed to be still detained.

No further action is required. Many thanks to all those who wrote on his behalf.
