PERU: Wilfredo CONTRERAS PALOMINO

Amnesty International has learnt that Wilfredo Contreras Palomino has been released. According to reports, he had been detained on 6 August 1991 by uniformed soldiers who took him to the Abancay army base where he was held for nine days. He was then transferred to DIRCOTE (Dirección Contra el Terrorismo), the police anti-terrorism division, where he was held for seven days.

No further appeals are necessary. Thanks to all those who responded to this case.
