Amnesty International has learned that the four people named above were released on 19 September. All members of the same family from the community of La Concepción in Yondó municipality in Antioquia, they had been seized by members of the army on 3 September during house searches carried out by troops in their village.

Amnesty International will continue to make inquiries about their treatment while in custody. However, no further action is required by Urgent Action Network participants. Thank you to all who sent appeals.
