EL SALVADOR: Lic. Ricardo Ernesto CALDERON JUAREZ

Lic. Ricardo Ernesto Calderón Juárez, Secretary General of the National University of El Salvador, was detained at his home at midday of 28 June 1983 by heavily armed men in plain clothes, believed to be members of the National Police. His arrest has been acknowledged and he is being held at the National Police Headquarters for investigation.

Lic. Calderón Juárez has previously been arrested on 10 February 1981 when troop burst into a regular meeting of the Consejo Superior Universitario (Supreme University Council) of the National University. Twenty members were detained with him, including the deans of six faculties, and the interim Rector of the National University, Lic. Miguel Angel Parada. Fourteen of the University Council were released shortly afterwards; the others, including Lic. Calderón Juárez, were eventually located in Santa Tecla prison. Lic. Calderón Juárez was released on 27 March 1981 (see UA 32/81, AMR 29/12/81 11 February, AMR 29/15/81 20 February, AMR 29/26/81 10 April). Amnesty International is concerned that he may be tortured while in detention.

Teachers and other workers in the field of education have often been a specific target of repression in recent years in El Salvador. The National University itself was completely occupied by the army on 26 June 1980. Students, professors, university administrators and staff were taken into custody and at least 22 people were killed.

The arbitrary arrests, torture, "disappearances" and extrajudicial executions which have been carried out against members of the teaching profession by the regular police and military forces, or the paramilitary groups to which they are linked, appeared to be an attempt to eradicate the teachers' union ANDES (Asociación Nacional de Educadores de El Salvador "21 de Junio"), an active corporate member of the mass organization Bloque Popular Revolucionario (BPR – Popular Revolutionary Block). The BPR is a member of the Frente Democrático Revolucionario (Democratic Revolutionary Front), the broad grouping which since its formation in 1980 has led the opposition to the Salvadorian government. Teachers may have also been targeted for repression since, as educated people, they are potential leaders in small communities and, as such, could constitute a focus of opposition to the established authorities.

Following the elections for a constituent assembly held on 28 March 1982, reports of human rights violations involving the official security forces have continued unabated. The violations are occurring in a context of continued conflict between the government and opposition forces, but reports received by Amnesty International indicate that non-combatants from all sectors of Salvadorian society continue to be the victims of such violations, including arbitrary detention, "disappearance", and extrajudicial executions at the hands of the official military and police services, who act on occasion in conjunction with clandestine paramilitary squads who have their explicit or implicit warrant. As in previous years, in no single instance since the elections have the Salvadorian authorities issued a satisfactory response to enquiries concerning these violations.

RECOMMENDED ACTION:

Telegrams/express letters/ airmail letters requesting clarification of the legal situation of Lic. Calderón Juárez and urging that he be immediately released unless charged and brought before a court. Seek assurances that his physical integrity will be guaranteed while in detention.
