The 13 people above are all schoolteachers in El Salvador and were reportedly captured by Salvadorian security forces on 17 June 1981.

AI is seriously concerned about the safety of the detained persons in view of the fact that, between January and mid-March 1981, 156 teachers were reported to have been killed in El Salvador (reports from the Socorro Juridico, the Legal Aid office of the Archbishopric of San Salvador). For background on teachers killed in 1980, see AI document “72 teachers killed January – August 1980” (AMR 29/56/80).

On 19 March 1981, ANDES 21 de Junio (the Salvadorian teachers’ union Asociación Nacional de Educadores Salvadoreños “21 de Junio” (ANDES 21 de Junio) – National Association of Salvadorian Educators “21 June”) reported that its headquarters had been raided the previous day by members of the National Police and two employees were arrested. It said the raid was the third on its headquarters.
