

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

MEDIA ADVISORY

8 April 2010
AI Index: EUR 50/006/2010

Amnesty International addresses memorandum on human rights to President Yanukovich

(Kyiv) Amnesty International delegates are in Kyiv to address a memorandum on human rights to President Viktor Yanukovich and meet government officials.

At a press conference in Kyiv, the human rights organization will present its concerns on continuing human rights violations such as torture and ill-treatment in detention, unlawful detention, racial discrimination and forcible return of migrants and asylum seekers.

Who: Nicola Duckworth, Senior Director at Amnesty International
Heather McGill, researcher on Ukraine at Amnesty International
Tetyana Mazur, Director of Amnesty International Ukraine

When: 11.00am, Wednesday, 14 April 2010

Where: Ukrinform
Bohdan Khmelnytsky str., 8/16
Kyiv

For further information or to arrange an interview, please contact:

Lydia Aroyo, Press Officer, Amnesty International: +44 7771 796 350 (UK mobile) or +38096 5035688 after 12 April (Ukrainian mobile), e-mail address: laroyo@amnesty.org

/END

Public Document