Amnesty International 27th International Council Meeting México, Morelos 2005

Amnesty International will hold its 27th International Council Meeting (ICM) in Mexico, from Sunday 14th August to Saturday 20th August 2005.

The ICM is the supreme governing body of Amnesty International. It decides on Amnesty International strategy, political, financial and organizational issues for the forthcoming years. The Council also elects the International Executive Committee (IEC), to act as the decision-making body of the movement between Council meetings, as well as other committees.

At this ICM, representatives from Amnesty International around the world will gather to discuss issues such as the importance of activism and human rights work across the globe and the impact of work done from and to individuals at risk.

The ICM is an internal gathering for Amnesty International representatives from around the world, and media opportunities for journalists will be limited.

If you are interested in organizing interviews with Amnesty International representatives, you should contact the press office before making your way to the venue.
