China: Lawyers and Activists detained or questioned by police since 9 July 2015

Amnesty International has collated the list based on various sources and attempted to confirm all information. However, verification remains difficult and not all the information may be up to date.

Note: In China, “summoned” refers to a particular procedure detailed in Criminal Law article 92 by which an individual regarded as a “criminal suspect” can be interrogated at a designated place but need not be arrested or formally detained.

Total number of lawyers and activists targeted: 248  Total number of lawyers and activists formally arrested or indicted: 6  Total number of lawyers and activists convicted: 3  (Last update: 3.00pm Beijing time, 6 January 2017)

Note 1: Bao Zhuoxuan, along with two activists, Tang Zhishun and Xing Qingxian were taken away on 6 October 2015, after a dozen uniformed officials raided the guest house they were staying at in Mongla, Myanmar, close to the border with China.

Note 2: Zhang Kai was placed under residential surveillance on suspicion of “stealing, spying into, purchasing, or illegally providing state secrets or intelligence to an organ, organization, or individual outside the country” and “disturbing public order” as part of a wider crackdown on activists who are resisting the removal of crosses from churches, a crackdown that is distinct from the one that this list documents. He was released on 23 March 2016.

Note 3: Jiang Tianyong has been missing since 21 November 2016 after visiting Xie Yang’s family. However we cannot verify if this is directly related to the crackdown against lawyers and activists.
