Vitalina Koval works hard to support local LGBTI people in her home city, Uzhgorod. But she was violently attacked after organizing a peaceful protest on International Women’s Day 2018. The assault is just part of a wider surge in intimidation by far-right groups in Ukraine. Vitalina and human rights defenders won’t give into fear, so let’s stand with them.

Tell Ukraine to protect activists defending women’s and LGBTI rights.

VITALINA KOVAL
HUMAN RIGHTS DEFENDER, UKRAINE

VIOLENTLY ATTACKED FOR SUPPORTING LGBTI RIGHTS