NAWAL BENAÏSSA

HUMAN RIGHTS DEFENDER, MOROCCO

HOUNDED FOR DEMANDING A BETTER LIFE

Nawal Benaïssa speaks out for her region, where many people feel forgotten by their government. She's been on peaceful protests and campaigned on social media. But she's been harassed by the Moroccan authorities and was given a 10-month suspended sentence for "inciting to commit an offence". She just wants to be free to fight for the chance of a better life.

Tell Morocco to stop harassing Nawal today.
