DETAINED OPPOSITION LEADER ACCUSED OF TREASON
Leader of the United Party for National Development (UPND), Mr Hakainde Hichilema was arrested on 10 April. He has been charged with treason over allegations of obstructing the Presidential motorcade as it was on the way to a traditional ceremony held in the Western Province on 8 April. Treason is a non-bail able offense punishable by death in Zambia. Hakainde Hichilema is being detained at Lilayi Police Camp, a police training school outside Lusaka.

Heavily armed police, on Monday 10 April, raided the house of UPND president, Hakainde Hichilema in Lusaka, Zambia. Police switched off power at the house, blocked access to the main roads, broke the doors and fired teargas into the house. Hakainde Hichilema and his family were in the house at the time of the raid. His wife who is asthmatic fainted twice during the raid.

Hakainde Hichilema was then taken to Lilayi Police Camp, a police training school outside Lusaka, where he is being detained accused of treason. The authorities allege that on 8 April, Hakainde Hichilema who was on his way to the Mongu celebration in Western Province accompanied by a convoy of over 60 vehicles, blocked President Edgar Lungu's motorcade. They say that Hakainde Hichilema's vehicle did not give way for the President's motorcade. However, video evidence shows that the two convoys each stuck to one side of the road with none blocking the road.

Hakainde Hichilema was on 12 April charged with treason, disobedience to lawful orders, disobeying statutory duty and using insulting language under the Penal Code. Treason is a non-bail able offence in Zambia with a minimum jail term of 15 years and maximum sentence punishable by death.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Hakainde Hichilema is the president of the main opposition political party in Zambia, the United Party for National Development (UPND). Hakainde Hichilema contested against President Edgar Chagwa Lungu in the presidential elections held on 11 August 2016, where he was narrowly defeated. Following the defeat, UPND challenged the electoral results and their petition was thrown out by the Constitutional Court, without being heard by three Constitutional Court judges who took the decision without involving two other Constitutional Court judges.

Hakainde Hichilema was arrested alongside UPND vice-president Geoffrey Bwalya Mwamba in Luanshya on 6 October 2016 while on their way to visit their supporters in prison. Some members of the party have been in custody since August 2016. Hakainde Hichilema has always availed himself to the police whenever they have wanted. UPND members and activists have been subjected to harassment and arbitrary arrests in the past.
