	Carolina Rubio (f)	]

A paramilitary group has threatened to kill the trade unionists and social activists named above, who live or work in the city of Bucaramanga, Santander Department. Their lives may be in danger.

On 19 June unknown men left a letter containing death threats in an envelope at the housing complex where trade unionist Belcy Rincón lives in the municipality of Floridablanca, Santander Department. Her home and mobile telephone numbers were written on the envelope, as well as her address. The letter accused Belcy Rincón's trade union, Sintraclínicas, which represents health workers, of being "a burrow of guerrillas" (una madriguera de guerrilleros). The letter also said that the union's members would soon be "exterminated like cockroaches" (pronto serán exterminados como cucarachas). The death threat was signed by the Black Eagles (Águilas Negras) paramilitary group.

On 11 June a man on a motorbike stopped in front of the house of César Tamayo, president of the peasant farmers' trade union Asociación Agraria de Santander, Agrarian Association of Santander. When Tamayo's 11-year-old son answered the door, the man, his face hidden by his helmet, handed him an envelope containing an announcement of the death of César Tamayo and the others named above, apart from Belcy Rincón. Beside each name there was a cross.

The note declared them to be military targets and accused them of being guerrillas and of promoting antipatriotic marches against "decent people who produce wealth in the city and in the countryside" (la gente de bien que produce riqueza en la ciudad y el campo). The note also read, "a Colombia free of guerrillas - yes! NGOs, defenders of narco-guerrillas, NO! RIP!" (Colombia libre de guerrilleros...Sí, ONGs Defensoras de losNarcoterroristas NO! QEPD!). This death threat was also signed by the Black Eagles.

For the last three months trade unions and human rights NGOs in Bucaramanga have been organizing and taking part in demonstrations supporting workers' rights. They have also been publicly condemning the activities of the Black Eagles (Águilas Negras) in Santander Department. This has made them targets of paramilitary death threats. For more information on paramilitary death threats against trade unionist and social activists in Bucaramanga, see UA 115/08, AMR 23/014/2008, 30 April 2008.

César Plazas, David Florez, Nohora Villamizar and Fernando Porras are members of the Santander branch of the Trade Union Congress (Central Unitaria de Trabajadores). Javier Correa is a member of the National Union of Food Industry Workers (Sindicato Nacional de Trabajadores de la Industria de Alimentos). Martha Cecilia Díaz is the president of the Public Services Workers' Union of Santander (Asociación Santandereana de Servidores Públicos). Belcy Rincón is member of the health workers' union SintraClínicas. William Rivera, Gustavo Mendoza and Carolina Rubio are members of the non-governmental human rights organization Committee of Solidarity for Political Prisoners (Fundación Comité de Solidaridad con los Presos Políticos).

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

During Colombia's 40-year armed conflict, human rights organizations, trade unions and other social organizations have often been labelled as guerrilla collaborators or supporters by the security forces and paramilitaries. As a result they often suffer threats, enforced disappearance or killings. Guerrilla groups have also threatened or killed human rights defenders they consider to be siding with the enemy.
