

EMPOWER AGAINST TORTURE

An online platform to educate and engage young activists in the Stop Torture campaign

By young activists – for young activists

Are you aiming to engage young activists in the Stop Torture campaign? Then this pioneering Stop Torture Human Rights Education Guide is for you.

Developed by young activists from around the globe, the Guide provides an online resource of tools, ideas and information. This new initiative puts the skills and educational needs of activists at the heart of the campaign, and includes:

- a series of workshops exploring different aspects of the campaign;
- an overview of previously developed resources;

- basic human rights education advice on how young activists can become multipliers for the campaign;
- an opportunity to share your resources with young activists around the globe.

June 2014 is a pre-launch test phase. We are keen to know what you and your activists think – test out the Guide and send us your online feedback. Alternatively, contact the International Human Rights Education Centre if you would like to add a workshop or have new ideas: mbanz@amnesty.no or aschneider@amnesty.no

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

Activists from across the global movement in Oslo, May 2014. Young people from 16 countries shared their experiences and skills to create exciting and inspiring ways to engage others with the Stop Torture campaign. The team continues to develop and test resources all over the world and are looking forward to your feedback!
