Further information on UA 63/99 (AFR 22/06/99, 1 April 1999) and follow-up (AFR 22/09/99, 7 September 1999) - Medical concern / Unlawful detention/ prisoner of conscience

REPUBLIC OF CONGOHervé-Ambroise Malonga, lawyer

Hervé-Ambroise Malonga was released from detention on 16 October 1999.

In a letter to Amnesty International, he said: Je ne sais comment vous remercier pour toutes les actions et démarches que vous avez faites à mon profit", "I do not know how to thank you for all your actions on my behalf."

Hervé-Ambroise Malonga, President of the Brazzaville Bar Association and a member of the Constitutional Council under the former government of President Lissouba, was arrested in November 1998 and charged with forfaiture pour avoir prorogé indéfiniment le mandat présidentiel de Pascal Lissouba (abuse of authority by prolonging for an indefinite period the presidential mandate of Pascal Lissouba).

Amnesty International became concerned about him after hearing that his health was seriously deteriorating because of the harsh conditions of his detention and that he was being denied proper medical care.

The organization was also concerned that he was being held solely for fulfilling his legitimate role as a member of the former Constitutional Council and was therefore a prisoner of conscience.

No further action is required by the Urgent Action network. Many thanks to all who wrote appeals on behalf of Hervé-Ambroise Malonga.
