GABON / RWANDA Around 155 Rwandese asylum-seekers in Gabon

Around 97 soldiers of the former Rwandese army - who were among the 155 Rwandese asylum-seekers forcibly repatriated from Gabon on 12 August 1997 - are still in military custody in Rwanda. Since their arrival in Rwanda on 12 August, the former soldiers have been detained in an undisclosed location. Humanitarian organizations, including the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR), have been denied access to the prisoners.

FURTHER RECOMMENDED ACTION: Please send telegrams/faxes/express/airmail letters in French or English or in your own language:

- asking for information on the whereabouts of the soldiers of the former Rwandese army who were repatriated from Gabon to Rwanda on 12 August 1997;
- expressing concern that the detainees are reported to have been held in incommunicado detention since their arrival in Rwanda, and urging that humanitarian organizations be granted immediate access to them;
- seeking assurances that they are not being ill-treated and that their safety will be guaranteed;
- explaining that you are aware that many members of the former Rwandese army are believed to have played a leading role in the genocide in 1994, but asking if the detainees have been formally charged and if so asking for details of the specific charges against them.
