Sudan: Amnesty International starts mission

An Amnesty International delegation starts an official mission to Sudan today.

The delegation which is led by Andrew Anderson, Director of the Africa Program in its International Secretariat, will hold talks with members of the Sudanese government and meet Sudanese non-governmental organizations and members of civil society. Other delegates are Elizabeth Hodgkin and Benedicte Goderiaux, staff members of Amnesty International, and Mazen Shaqqura, Director of the Palestinian Independent Commission for Citizens' Rights, travelling from Gaza.
