TOGO                    Marc Palanga (m), leader of the Union des forces du changement (UFC), Union of Forces for Change
new name:            Mazama Katassa (m), member of UFC

On 26 February, a member the Union des forces du changement (UFC), Union of Forces for Change, was arrested in Sotouboua, central Togo. He was transferred on 1 March to Kara Gendarmerie (paramilitary police station) in northern Togo, where he is being held incommunicado detention.

There are concerns for his safety as UFC members, including Marc Palanga have recently been tortured and ill-treated by Togolese military personnel, following their arrest. There are fears that similar ill-treatment may be inflicted by the gendarmerie.

As with Marc Palanga, Amnesty International believes that Mazama Katassa has been arrested solely on account of his peaceful involvement with the UFC and considers him to be a prisoner of conscience.

RECOMMENDED ACTION: Please send appeals to arrive as quickly as possible, in French or your own language:

- urging the Togolese authorities to take immediate measures to prevent Marc Palanga and Mazama Katassa being tortured or ill-treated and to guarantee their safety;
- stating that Amnesty International considers them to be prisoners of conscience and is calling for their immediate and unconditional release;
- urging the authorities to allow them immediate access to their families, lawyers and any medical treatment they may require;
- requesting that a thorough investigation be conducted into the reported beatings of Union des forces du changement (UFC), Union of Forces for Change, members detained between 9-17 February 2003 and for those responsible be brought to justice;
- calling on the authorities to end arbitrary arrest and detention, torture and ill-treatment of members of opposition parties in Togo.
