BAHAMASRicardo Farrington

Ricardo Farrington, who was originally scheduled to be executed on 9 April 1996, has been granted leave to appeal to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council (JCPC) in London, the final court of appeal for the Bahamas. The full appeal hearing is expected to be held in July.

No further appeals by the Urgent Action Network are requested at the present time. The network will be alerted if appeals again become necessary at a later date. Thank you to all those who made appeals on behalf of Ricardo Farrington.
