According to information received by Amnesty International, David Herrera, Estanislao Chile and Francisco Vallejo are now being held at the public jail (cárcel pública) in Oruro. They have been charged under Law 1.008 (Ley del Régimen de la Coca y Substancias Controladas, Coca and Controlled Substances Law). They now have access to their relatives and lawyer.

All others have been recently released. The releases of Marcial Alavi, Cancio Nina and Vicente Vigabriel are provisional and they have to report regularly to the police headquarters in Villa Tunari until a decision on their legal situation is made.

No further action by the UA Network is requested. Thank you to all who sent appeals.
