The Colombian Presidential Adviser on Human Rights has informed Amnesty International that Rodrigo Guisao, his son Alejandro Guisao and Efraín Higueta were released from detention on 20 December 1990.

They had been detained on 11 December 1990 by soldiers belonging to the army's Voltígeros Battalion, following raids on the homes of banana workers in the Urabá region of Antioquia department, and there was serious concern for the physical safety of the three men.

No further action is required. Thank you to all who sent appeals on their behalf.
