

PUBLIC

AI Index: AMR 25/015/2001

13 September 2001

Further information on UA 229/01 (AMR 25/007/2001, 12 August 2001) - arbitrary arrest/fear of becoming a prisoner of conscience

CUBA Leonardo Bruzón Avila, independent librarian and human rights defender

Amnesty International has just learned that Leonardo Bruzón Avila has been released from prison.

His release was only made public today. According to some sources it took place on 9 September. The eviction order against Leonardo Bruzón and his family has not been executed.

Many thanks to all who sent appeals. No further action is requested from the Urgent Action network.