Jamaica: Braeton Seven - correction

Further to the media advisory released on 5/03/2001, entitled Jamaica: Braeton Seven - overwhelming evidence of extrajudicial executions ignored, Amnesty International wishes to clarify that Jon Vogel, a firearms technician in the United Kingdom, is working with Amnesty International in a purely personal capacity as an advisor. His views do not represent those of Surrey Police or the United Kingdom. He has been working at the request of, and acting as a consultant to, Amnesty International and his opinions reflect his personal views alone.

Amnesty International's report, Jamaica: The Killing of the Braeton Seven - A Justice System on Trial, is to be launched today (13 March 2003) in Kingston, Jamaica.

Members of the Amnesty International delegation are Piers Bannister and Olivia Streater.
