Further information on UA 98/97 (AMR 46/11/97, 11 April 1997) - Torture / Fear for safety / Possible death in custody

PERU Leonor La Rosa Bustamente (f), army intelligence agent

Mariela Lucy Barreto Riofano (f), army intelligence agent

Amnesty International has learned that Leonor La Rosa Bustamente told members of Congress who visited her at Lima's Hospital Militar, Military Hospital, that she is afraid for her life and wishes to be transferred to a civilian hospital. A member of the Servicio de Inteligencia del Ejército, SIE, Army Intelligence Service, Leonor La Rosa (note separated spelling) revealed on Peruvian television on 6 April 1997 that she had been tortured by members of the army attached to the SIE (see original UA).

This is additional information for the UA Network. Please continue action as outlined in original UA, adding the following in any further appeals:

- calling for Leonor La Rosa to be transferred to a civilian hospital.
