The three men named above, who were scheduled to be executed on 10 November 1992, but had their executions stayed pending a constitutional motion on their cases in the High Court of Trinidad and Tobago, are currently awaiting the decision of the Court. Lawyers for the men expect this to take some time.

Thank you to all those who sent appeals on their behalf. No further action is required at the present time. We will advise the network if any future action is necessary on their behalf.
