INDIASikander Ahmad Mir
Gulshan Bano (his daughter) aged 15
Abdul Rashid Mir (his son)

Amnesty International has today received a reliable report that Sikander Ahmad Mir, Gulshan Bano and Abdul Rashid Mir were released on 29 June.

The police Special Operations Group had been holding the three in an attempt to make another of Sikander Ahmad Mir's sons, suspected of being a former member of an armed opposition group, surrender to police.

Amnesty International is aware of other cases where the authorities have detained juveniles to pressurize relatives accused of militancy to give themselves up.

Many thanks to all those who sent appeals. Please send one final telegram/telex/fax/express/airmail letter, in English or your own language:
- urging that children in Jammu and Kashmir are treated in accordance with the Convention on the Rights of the Child, to which India is a party, including Article 37(b), which states that: "No child shall be deprived of his or her liberty unlawfully or arbitrarily. The arrest, detention or imprisonment of a child shall be in conformity with the law and shall be used only as a measure of last resort and for the shortest appropriate period of time".
