Sri Lanka:Subramaniam Ketheeswaran

According to reliable sources, Subramaniam Ketheeswaran was unconditionally released in the middle of November 1991. He was arrested nearly 2 months ago from the premises of the Manikkar Pullaiyar Kovil refugee camp in Bambalapitiya, Colombo by a group of men belonging to one of the Tamil armed groups assisting the security forces in identifying members and sympathizers of the Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam (LTTE) among the refugees.

He is said to be in good health.

No further action required in this case. Thank you to all those who sent appeals on his behalf.
