Abstract:Bozidar Balenovic is the editor of a local newspaper which has recently criticized the authorities. In November 1995 he was called up for military service but refused as he is an ordained Catholic priest and therefore does not have to perform military service under Croatian law. He is currently detained in Zagreb. AI believes that his detention may be politically motivated because of criticism of the authorities in the newspaper which he edits. Abstract:'Abd al-Samad Harizat was detained and died in custody in April 1995. A subsequent autopsy found that he had died due to intra-cranial trauma after violent shaking of the head. The use of violent shaking by the General Security Service (GSS) was sanctioned by a Ministerial Committee and the Landau guidelines which allow "moderate physical pressure" in the interrogation of "security" detainees. Proposed legislation intended to incorporate the UN Convention on Torture into Israeli law is being put forward but appears to be written to allow ill-treatment to continue.
