Further information on UA 68/91 (EUR 44/27/91, 26 February 1991) - Fear of Torture/Health Concern

TURKEY: Veysel Yakmaz

Veysel Yakmaz, who was detained in Diyarbakir on 24 February 1991, was released on 5 or 6 March 1991 without charge. He was being held incommunicado at the headquarters of the "Rapid Force" anti-riot police (Cevik Kuvvet) in Diyarbakir and it was feared that he may be interrogated under torture. There was also added concern for his health. He has not reported ill-treatment during detention.

No further action is required on his behalf. Thanks to all those who sent appeals.
