Amnesty International is seriously concerned for the safety of the five people named above who are believed to be in incommunicado police custody in Diyarbak r.

The five have not been seen since leaving the HADEP building in the Ofis district of Diyarbak_r on 5 November 1995 (HADEP - People's Democracy Party - is a legal political party with a predominantly Kurdish membership). Nevin Yakut works in the office of the Diyarbak_r branch of the Turkish Human Rights Association (HRA), but is not a member of the HRA. The others are not HRA members either, but members of the local HADEP youth committee.

Appeals on their behalf have been made to the Minister for Human Rights. Reportedly he was told by an officer at Diyarbak_r Police Headquarters that the five were not in police custody.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Officials and members of HADEP continue to face grave risks. More than 100 officials and members of HADEP and its two predecessor parties HEP and DEP (both closed by the Constitutional Court for "separatism") have been killed and numerous others are in prison on charges of membership, or support, of PKK. Many party offices in the southeast have been closed down.
