

AI INDEX: EUR 70/36/98
25 JUNE 1998

PRESS CONFERENCE INVITATION

Kosovo Province Federal Republic of Yugoslavia

Amnesty International will be presenting the findings of their latest research on the current human rights crisis in Kosovo Province, Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, at a

Press Conference led by Mr Pierre Sané, Secretary General, at

10:30 am on 30 June 1998

Amnesty International
International Secretariat
(Conference Room)
1 Easton Street
London WC1X 8DJ*

Paul Miller, Researcher on the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia and currently carrying out a research mission in Kosovo Province – will be briefing journalists on his return from the region. Amnesty International will also be launching on the day the first four documents of a series of publications on the situation in the province:

- Background: A crisis waiting to happen
- Violence in Drenica
- Deaths in custody, torture and ill-treatment
- Unfair trials and abuses of due process

For further information, or to confirm your attendance, please contact Soraya Bermejo, Press Officer, on +44 171 413 5562 or 0468 670 248 (mobile)

* Easton Street is just off Rosebery Avenue

Nearest tube: Angel, Farringdon, Chancery Lane and Kings Cross.