LEBANON : Amnesty International delegates to visit Lebanon.

Amnesty International will be sending delegates to Lebanon on Saturday 27 May. The delegation will include Claudio Cordone, Director of the Research and Mandate Program of the International Secretariat of Amnesty International, and a member of the Tunisian Section of Amnesty International.

Delegates will be carrying out research into human rights concerns in south Lebanon before and after the withdrawal of Israeli forces from its self-styled "security zone". They will also be visiting former detainees held in Khiam Detention Centre, a centre where hundreds of Lebanese nationals have been detained over the years without charge or trial.
