

URGENT ACTION

HUMAN RIGHTS DEFENDER THREATENED, LIFE AT RISK
Human rights defender Aminetou Mint El Moctar's safety is at risk following death threats made against her by a leader of a radical Islamist group in Mauritania. No action has been taken by the authorities to ensure her safety and that of her organization.

Aminetou Mint El Moctar, President of the Women's Association of Heads of Household (Association des femmes chefs de familles, AFCF), is facing a fatwa with death threats issued by Yehdih Ould Dahi, leader of a radical Islamist group Ahbab Errassoul (Friends of the Prophet). In an interview published by local media, Aminetou Mint El Moctar asked for a fair trial for Cheikh Ould Mkheitir, a 28-year-old man charged with apostasy and currently being held in the Nouadhibou Prison, northern Mauritania. "Whoever kills her or rips out both her eyes will be rewarded by Allah", says the fatwa, published online on 5 June, shortly after the publication of the article. Her contact details, those of her association and the number plate of her car were also subsequently made public.

Aminetou Mint El Moctar tried to file a complaint on 6 June concerning this call for murder. The police authority refused, advising her instead to discuss it with Yehdih Ould Dahi.

The authorities have not condemned the fatwa so far and no action has been taken to ensure her safety or that of her association. No measures have been taken against those who originated the threats.

Please write immediately in French, Arabic or your own language:

- Expressing your concern regarding the death threats made against Aminetou Mint El Moctar, leader of AFCF;
- Expressing concern that no protection measures have been taken by the authorities in favour of Aminetou Mint El Moctar and her organization; or against those who threatened her physical integrity;
- Calling on the authorities to condemn the death threats made against her and urge them to take immediate measure to ensure her protection and that of the members of her association.
