

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL MEDIA ADVISORY

14 November 2011
Index: ASA 23/010/2011

Cambodia: Women hit hard by wave of forced evictions

On 24 November 2011, at a press conference in Phnom Penh, Amnesty International is launching a report revealing how Cambodian women are at the forefront of a battle against a wave of forced evictions sweeping the country.

Eviction and resistance in Cambodia: Five women tell their stories details, through first-hand testimony, the stories of Hong, Mai, Sopha, Heap and Vanny, women who have faced or continue to resist forced eviction from their homes and land.

Press conference:

When: 24/11/11 at 9.30am Cambodia time / 2.30 am BST

Where: Khmer Surin Restaurant, No. 9, Street 57, Phnom Penh, Cambodia.

Who: Introduced by Donna Guest, Amnesty International's Asia-Pacific Deputy Director.
Women affected by forced eviction will tell their stories.

Further information:

- Professional quality high res images are available
- Professional quality AV is available, inc. interviews with women and footage of forced eviction
- Interviews with women affected by forced eviction are available
- Interviews with Amnesty International spokespeople are available
- Please respect embargo of 24/11/11 11.30am / 04.30am BST

For an embargoed copy of the report, images, video material or to arrange interview please contact Amnesty International's Asia Pacific press officer, Katya Nasim on :
+44 (0) 207 413 5871 / + 44 (0) 7904 398 103 / katya.nasim@amnesty.org

ENDS/

Public Document

For more information please call Amnesty International's press office in London, UK, on +44 20 7413 5566 or email: press@amnesty.org

International Secretariat, Amnesty International, 1 Easton St., London WC1X 0DW, UK