<http://news.scotsman.com/latest.cfm?id=2893118>; Washington Post (7 March):
<http://www.washingtonpost.com/wp-dyn/articles/A7718-2004May7.html>

Iraq - abuse of prisoners. The abuse of detainees in Iraq was predictable argues Len Rubenstein, Executive Director of Physicians for Human Rights in the Washington Post (4 May). It was "a product of the circumstances of detention and the administration's resistance to independent monitoring and accountability". See: <http://www.washingtonpost.com/wp-dyn/articles/A64322-2004May3.html> [Registration required].

Press reaction to torture photos. New York Times Iraq reports:
<http://www.nytimes.com/pages/world/worldspecial/index.html>; Los Angeles Times reports:

<http://www.mirror.co.uk/news/allnews/page.cfm?objectid=14217558&method=full&siteid=50143>

UN reaction. UN experts have called for investigations into recent events in Iraq. Paul Hunt, the UN Special Rapporteur on the right to health, strongly recommended to the Coalition Provisional Authority that it "establish an independent and impartial enquiry into the health situation of the civilian population of Falluja, in the light of the military operations conducted by the Coalition Forces since the beginning of April". see

<http://www.unhchr.ch/hurricane/hurricane.nsf/view01/3D0396AD61D1C68CC1256E8900520F72> (3

May); the UN Special Rapporteur on torture, Theo van Boven, has called for countries with troops in Iraq "to investigate, prosecute and impose appropriate sanctions on any persons guilty of the alleged violations". See <http://www.un.org/News/Press/docs/2004/hr4740.doc.htm>. The

Chairperson/rapporteur of the Working Group on arbitrary detention, Leila Zerrougui, said she was "seriously disturbed by the fact that [Iraqi prisoners] have not been granted access to a court to be able to challenge the lawfulness of their detention"

<http://www.un.org/News/Press/docs/2004/hr4742.doc.htm> (5 May)

Organ trade

Russia. Four Moscow doctors have been arrested for plotting to murder a patient so that they could use his organs for transplantation in an illegal trade which Russians fear is rife but which is seldom brought to court. Guardian (29 April) <http://www.guardian.co.uk/russia/article/0,2763,1205618,00.html>; see also the BMJ (8 May) <http://bmj.bmjournals.com/cgi/content/full/328/7448/1092-a>
