Amnesty International Report 2006 the state of the world's human rights

Launched every year in May to global acclaim, the Amnesty International Report is the essential reference tool for those interested or working in the human rights field.

The report, which documents human rights issues of concern to Amnesty International in 150 countries, is a unique source of information about the state of human rights worldwide.

- Detailed and informed analysis of the human rights situation in 2005
- Accessible format with A-Z country listing and summaries of regional trends
- Attractive design with over 340 pages including 35 colour photos and regional maps
