Diary Note - 23 May 2007 Launch of Amnesty International Report 2007

Amnesty International's Secretary General, Irene Khan, will launch the Amnesty International Report 2007 from London on Wednesday 23 May 2007.

The Amnesty International Report 2007 is a comprehensive document which provides a global overview of the state of the world's human rights. The report, which covers 153 countries, documents human rights issues of concern to Amnesty International during 2006 and reflects the organization's activities during the year to promote human rights and to campaign against specific human rights abuses.
