Disappearance

4 June 1981

EL SALVADOR: Orlando Juventino GENOVES
Salvador JUAREZ
plus three other teachers

The five above were reportedly detained in El Salvador at the end of May by security forces. At present no further details are known. Orlando Juventino Genoves is President of the Salvadorian teachers' union Asociación Nacional de Educadores Salvadoreños "21 de Junio" (ANDES 21 de Junio) - National Association of Salvadorian Educators "21 June". Salvador Juarez is a writer and poet.

AI is seriously concerned about the safety of the detained persons in view of the fact that, between January and mid-March 1981, 156 teachers are reported to have been killed in El Salvador (reports from the Soconro Jurídico, the Legal Aid office of the Archbishopric of San Salvador). For background on teachers killed in 1980, see AI document "72 teachers killed January - August 1980" (AMR 29/56/80).

On 19 March 1981, ANDES 21 de Junio reported that its headquarters had been raided the previous day by members of the National Police, and two employees were arrested. It said the raid was the third on its headquarters.
